ANNOUNCING THE 2008 LLOYD E. BURTON SCHOLARSHIP

The Arizona Public Health Association (AzPHA) – the voice for public health in Arizona - invites current higher-education students to apply for the Lloyd E. Burton Scholarship. This $500 scholarship is awarded at the AzPHA Annual Membership in the fall.

This scholarship provides recognition to Lloyd E. Burton, Ph.D. for his sustained support of AzPHA by providing a scholarship in his name to encourage interest in professions that improve the public's health. Applicants should be Arizona students who are currently enrolled in a degree-seeking program related to public health (e.g. nursing, medicine, public health, health administration, etc.). Preference will be given to current student members of AzPHA. A printable membership application is available on the AzPHA website www.AzPHA.org. Student membership is $25 per year.

To apply for the scholarship, the student should complete the application describing:

1. The student's interest in public health;
2. How the student plans to improve the public's health;
3. Current public health activities and affiliations;
4. Contact information for the student and the student's college program;
5. Resumes, Official Transcripts and/or letters of support (optional, but helpful).

Completed forms and attachments should be mailed and postmarked no later than June 16, 2008 to:

Arizona Public Health Association
Scholarship Committee
2920 N. 24th Ave., #250
Phoenix, AZ 85015

Please note that faxed or e-mailed applications will not be accepted.

If you have additional questions about the scholarship or the application, please call Marisue Garganta at (602) 406-6580.
